

The offering made in the advertisement was subjected to the following conditions with an objective to motivate the students to pursue their course passionately with a remarkable outcome of knowledge and employment as demanded by the industry without compromise on quality which certainly benefit all the stakeholders.

- Those students who pass the subjects of the course in all semesters in 1st attempt and satisfy the eligibility criteria of various companies for which a close mentoring through expert faculty would be provided by the institute at all levels.
- Those students who undergo and complete the training on advanced topics sought by the industry in the respective disciplines provided to them by the institute during course of study with necessary certification (For Ex: Java Certification, PLM certification).
- Those students who accomplish major B.E project on real time applications associating with the industry for which a structured guidance will be provided by the institute.